ADMINISTRATIVE MEMORANDUM NUMBER NINETY
HUMANE TREATMENT OF ANIMALS

Staff involved with student activities should take reasonable precaution to assure that if animals are used in student activities, they are treated in a humane manner and not subjected to abuse. It is suggested that the utilization of any animal in a student activity be subject to careful staff review. Above and beyond the highly undesirable chance of animal abuse is the possibility that a student or activity participant might suffer a bite or an injury by an animal.
