

Article IX.A.1.h. Certificates and Licenses

A. Statement of Policy

Before reporting for duty, employees shall comply with all necessary certification, endorsements, and license requirements of the Utah State Board of Education and other official government agencies. All teaching certificates must be submitted to the District Human Resources office to be recorded on the employee's official record card. (See Administrative Memorandum 22.)