

Article VIII. A. 1. Philosophy

- A. The District is committed to support school based instructional programs which are organized to provide a superior education academically, culturally, socially, and physically.
- B. Instruction should occur in a school climate where there is safety, respect and dignity for each student and an opportunity to develop a sense of individual worth.
- C. The District is committed to the concept that quality education involves a continuous and sequential pursuit of academic excellence from kindergarten through the twelfth grade.
- D. The curriculum is designed to provide all students with the opportunity to develop at their own rate and in their own individual manner.