

Article VIII.A.11. Staffing Plan, Organization and School Attendance Pattern

- A. The deputy/assistant superintendents over School Services are the line officers to whom the principal is answerable in the management of the school. The schools will receive technical assistance, developmental materials, resource materials and facilitating services from the Offices of School Services. and the Office of Administrative Services.
- B. The organizational chart illustrates administrative organization and operation.
- C. Student attendance at elementary, junior and senior high schools is assigned according to specific boundaries. The flow chart in Appendix A illustrates the "feeder" system of assignment.