Article X.C.1.  Educational Technology General Responsibilities

A.  Statement of Purpose

Educational technology is coordinated by a director to provide leadership for the use of classroom computers and other instructional equipment. The department defines the curriculum, selects software and establishes standards and objectives.