Summary of What is Expected of Guardians and Conservators

This summary is only a summary. For more information about your responsibilities and forms, please visit the court's website at <http://www.utcourts.gov/howto/family/gc/>.

(1) Duties to the Court

(a) What you must do:

- Notify the court if you or the protected person move.
- File a "status report" every year within 60 days after the anniversary of your appointment.
- To do this, login to your OCAP user account <https://pubapps.utcourts.gov/OcapWEB/LoginServlet> and select Prepare Annual Reports under Guardian and Conservatorship.
 - Follow the instructions to complete the status report.
- File a final accounting with the court when the guardianship ends.
- Notify the court if the protected person dies or no longer needs a guardian.

(2) Duties to the Protected Person

(a) What you must do:

- Make the decisions that the protected person would make, unless that decision would cause harm.

(b) What you must not do:

- Abuse, neglect or isolate the protected person.

(c) What the guardian may do (unless the court's order limits your authority):

- Make decisions for the protected person about:
 - health care or other service;
 - custody and residence;
 - care, comfort, and maintenance; and
 - training and education.

(3) Duties to Interested Persons

(a) What you must do:

- Notify the interested persons of your appointment right away; notify others as needed.
- Notify the interested persons if the protected person dies or no longer needs a guardian or conservator.
