Exhibit Granite School District Gallery
October 7th to November 15th

This year we honor the lives and achievements of great leaders who dared to dream of a brighter future of tolerance and peace. While we have many reasons to celebrate the diversity and inclusion of today, we can continue to build on this dream through our words, thoughts, and actions.

Winners will be selected from multiple grade spans and all winning entries will be displayed at the Granite School District Art Gallery at 2500 South State Street. Students from all grade levels are encouraged to participate. Four Grand Prize winners will be honored at the March 2020 UCLR Cesar Chavez Banquet.
