

Article VIII.A.6.

Management of Children on Field Trips

A. Statement of Purpose

Management of students during field trips, while on or off school buses, is the direct responsibility of the teacher in charge. Teachers should be prepared to appropriately handle discipline problems should they arise. Consequences for discipline problems may need to be administered after students have returned to the school. Follow-up discipline for the student may be appropriate once the group has returned to the school setting.