

Article VIII.A.8. Parent-Teacher Conferences

- A. Parent-teacher conferences will be held two times during the school year. Depending on the approved calendars, traditional and year-round, students may be excused from school on these days.
- B. All contract employees, certificated and/or classified, are to consider conferencing days as work days at school.
- C. Principals and media specialists should consider the option of media specialists working in the library on conferencing days or taking the two days off and using them after the close of school in the compensatory way.
