

Article VIII.B.8.      Home School

A.      Statement of Purpose

The District complies with the Utah State Attorney General's formal opinion No. FO86-001, dated October 2, 1986. The District works directly with parents who choose to educate their children at home. The District offers assistance in selecting appropriate academic textbooks and educational materials as well as offering suggestions for appropriate teaching techniques.

The District also makes testing available on a yearly basis for all Home School students.
